Advancing gender equity through research, education and advocacy

Join a community that works to break down barriers and advance the rights and opportunities of women and girls through advocacy, research, and empowerment.

We advocate for women and girls through educating about the gender pay gap, identifying issues about and solutions for the underrepresentation of women in leadership roles. Through scholarships, STEM programs and working together to create change, we can make a difference in the lives of women and girls.

*American Association of University Women
St. Augustine Branch*

AAUW

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) is a national organization with more than 170,000 members. AAUW has grown into a community with branches in every state. AAUW is non-partisan.

Mission Statement

Advancing gender equity through research, education and advocacy.

Since the first meeting in 1881, AAUW has worked to break down educational and economic barriers for women and girls. We are the oldest and largest national nonprofit dedicated to the advancement of women. AAUW is international and has consultative status with the U.N. Dept of Economic and Social Affairs.

What We Do

AAUW is committed to empowering women and advocating for gender equity. We work to drive the national discussion and public policy around topics like women in leadership positions, human trafficking, and sexual harassment.

We have conducted groundbreaking research about gender equity in education and in the workplace. Studies that we have recently published include Barriers and Bias: The Status of Women in Leadership, The Simple Truth About the Gender Pay Gap, and Deeper In Debt: Women and Student Loans.

AAUW St. Augustine
